3 Travel info

3.1 Currency
The official currency is czech crown (CZK). 1 EUR ~ 26 CZK. In many supermarkets and restaurants in downtown, you can pay in EUR (with adverse rate, usually). Credit cards are applicable in most restaurants and in nearly any shop.

3.2 Public transportation system
It is very common to use public transportation system. Only in rush-hours one can get delays up to 15 minutes on buses. Subway and trams are very precise. Googlemaps are very helpful in finding the right way.

Subway is operating from 5:00 am till 11:59 pm at least. Buses and trams operation time differs for each line. Few trams and buses are operating after midnight too.

Public transportation for 90 minutes costs 32 CZK. For 30 minutes about 24 CZK, 1 day (24 hours) 110 CZK, 3 days 310 CZK. You can swap lines anytime. You have to validate the ticket at first use in validator machine near entrance to the subway or inside bus/tram.

On bus stop at airport and at few places in downtown one can find ticket machine for credit cards. Otherwise, you have to buy tickets at coin machines in subway stations or at tobacco shops (cash/credit card)

3.3 Transportation from the airport to downtown
Get a bus 119 near airport terminal and go to subway "A" station "Nádraží Veleslavín." Then, take a subway.

When you prefer taxi, you can get some for price lower than 700 CZK. Ask in advance for price. Pre-ordered taxis have fixed price for Airport-downtown journey for about 500 CZK.

3.4 Transportation by car

3.4.1 Highways
Vignette for highways: buy in advance or at border in a shop/gas pump/post office. The price for cars up to 3.5 t is for 10 days 310 CZK, month 440 CZK, year 1500 CZK (prices for year 2018). Details at http://www.dalnicni-znamky.com/en/

3.4.2 Parking at Prague
Around Prague are P+R with good and fast connection to downtown. There are no EURO limits for driving car in downtown. For parking check signs and parking machines. Details about parking zones are at http://www.parkujvklidu.cz/prague-parking/

3.5 Bike rentals
It is not too much usual to use bikes in Prague, so there is not much special ways for bikers. You have to share roads with cars. In the case, that you prefer bike instead of walking, here is a shop nearest to subway station „Skalka“ (in walking distance):

FAME sport, Úvalská 28, Praha

http://www.famesport.cz/pujcovna/
It is opened from 10:30 till 19:30 during working days. The price is very roughly about 80 EUR per 9 days. You have to rent the bike in advance.

3.6 Meals
There is a canteen at CMI Radiová site for lunches only (about 3 EUR)

In Prague, cheapest meal (one dish) for lunch costs about 4 EUR, cheapest dinner meal (one dish) about 6-15 EUR.
